Romans 4:14 If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void.

Romans 6:6 We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the sinful body might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin.

Romans 7:2 Thus a married woman is bound by law to her husband as long as he lives; but if her husband dies she is discharged from the law concerning the husband.

Romans 7:6 But now we are discharged from the law, dead to that which held us captive, so that we serve not under the old written code but in the new life of the Spirit.

1Cor 1:28 God chose what is low and despised in the world, even things that are not, to bring to nothing things that are,

1Cor 2:6 Yet among the mature we do impart wisdom, although it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to pass away.

1Cor 6:13 "Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food" -- and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is not meant for immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

1Cor 13:8 [2x] Love never ends; as for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away.

1Cor 13:10 but when the perfect comes, the imperfect will pass away.

1Cor 13:11 When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became a man, I gave up childish ways.

1Cor 15:24 Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power.

1Cor 15:26 The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

2Cor 3:7 Now if the dispensation of death, carved in letters on stone, came with such splendor that the Israelites could not look at Moses' face because of its brightness, fading as this was,

2Cor 3:11 For if what faded away came with splendor, what is permanent must have much more splendor.

2Cor 3:13 not like Moses, who put a veil over his face so that the Israelites might not see the end of the fading splendor.

2Cor 3:14 But their minds were hardened; for to this day, when they read the old covenant, that same veil remains unlifted, because only through Christ is it taken away.

Gal 3:17 This is what I mean: the law, which came four hundred and thirty years afterward, does not annul a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to make the promise void.

Gal 5:4 You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified by the law; you have fallen away from grace.

Gal 5:11 But if I, brethren, still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? In that case the stumbling block of the cross has been removed.

2Thess 2:8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, and the Lord Jesus will slay him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and his coming.

τὸν θάνατον - 22x in Paul [w/ article, any case] - the death

Exegetical notes on 2 Timothy 1:3-14

Romans 5:10 For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life.

Romans 5:12 [2x] Therefore as sin came into the world through one man and death through sin, and so death spread to all men because all men sinned --

Romans 5:14 Yet death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sins were not like the transgression of Adam, who was a type of the one who was to come.

Romans 5:17 If, because of one man's trespass, death reigned through that one man, much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man Jesus Christ.

Romans 5:21 so that, as sin reigned in death, grace also might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 6:3 Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

Romans 6:4 We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.

Romans 6:5 For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

Romans 7:5 While we were living in the flesh, our sinful passions, aroused by the law, were at work in our members to bear fruit for death.

Romans 7:24 Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death?

Romans 8:2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set me free from the law of sin and death.

1Cor 11:26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

1Cor 15:26 The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

1Cor 15:54 When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory."

1Cor 15:56 The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.

2Cor 1:9 Why, we felt that we had received the sentence of death; but that was to make us rely not on ourselves but on God who raises the dead;

2Cor 3:7 Now if the dispensation of death, carved in letters on stone, came with such splendor that the Israelites could not look at Moses' face because of its brightness, fading as this was,

2Cor 4:12 So death is at work in us, but life in you.

Phil 3:10 that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death,

Col 1:22 he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him,

2Tim 1:10 and now has manifested through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

φωτίσαντος - 11x in NT - to cause light to shine upon some object, in the sense of illuminating it - to cause something to be fully known by revealing clearly and in some detail -

Luke 11:36 If then your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, it will be wholly bright, as when a lamp with its rays gives you light."

John 1:9 The true light that enlightens every man was coming into the world.

1Cor 4:5 Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then every man will receive his commendation from God.

Eph 1:18 having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints,

Eph 3:9 and to make all men see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things;

2Tim 1:10 and now has manifested through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

Heb 6:4 For it is impossible to restore again to repentance those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, and have become partakers of the Holy Spirit,

Heb 10:32 But recall the former days when, after you were enlightened, you endured a hard struggle with sufferings,

Rev 18:1 After this I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority; and the earth was made bright with his splendor.

ever and ever.

1Cor 15:50 I tell you this, brethren: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

1Cor 15:53 For this perishable nature must put on the imperishable, and this mortal nature must put on immortality.
